"... Royal Holloway is part of the University of London Group which includes UCL, King's College, SOAS and Goldsmiths.

In addition to my studies I also train in Boxing and Mixed Martial Arts and am currently competing on an amateur level at heavyweight, with aspirations of pursuing a professional career.

Furthermore, I am also part of the Ski and Snowboarding society that organises ski trips abroad for members.

In addition to this I help local primary school children with Maths and English skills. ..."
