“... my uni provides different clubs for different people, for example, since my origins are Sri Lankan, I have joined the Sri Lankan community where people from my country join together to organise different events - where you are able to play sports or games of any sort. Furthermore, there are study clubs for people in need of help meaning that you are never left behind - as there are people there that can take care of you.

It is not the biggest university in London but it does have buildings for every subject and the architecture, being very ancient, looks fascinating.

All the facilities are here and the lectures are some of the best in the country, meaning you are well taught ...”
