FIREWORKS

The start of Autumn sees greater availability of fireworks in local shops. We want to be clear about our stance on the possession and use of fireworks in school and in the community. Fireworks are hazardous items, the misuse of which can lead to serious injury as well as distress to those affected by them. If a student is found in possession of a firework either in school or on the way to or from school, permanent exclusion from school for being in possession of a prohibited and dangerous item, is the likely outcome, as per our school's behaviour policy.

Any buying and selling of fireworks, setting off, or attempting to set a firework off, or being part of a group doing so, is also likely to lead to permanent exclusion for any individual involved. Please ensure that your child is aware of the school's position and if they suspect that fireworks are being brought on site, please remind them that they have a responsibility to inform a member of staff to prevent serious harm or distress. Thank you in advance for your support.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

This month, we celebrate Black History Month. It is an opportunity for children and young people to learn more about Black history and to celebrate the contributions Black people have made to society.
